CSA 2021 Membership Agreement

By purchasing a CSA share, I agree to accept the risks and rewards inherent to farming. I understand that the farmers at Bountiful Baskets will work in good faith to produce the best possible crop using sustainable growing methods, but I also understand that crops may be damaged by natural forces beyond the farmer's control, and that my share may be affected by such damage.

I understand that my share will be divided into 12 portions, available weekly beginning around mid-July, and continuing through mid-October based on the weather. I agree to abide by the guidelines specific to the pick-up location. I understand that the price I pay for my share is an investment in the farm's operating budget, and that it cannot be refunded after July 1. I have read the CSA refund policy below, and I accept it.

I understand that the e-newsletter The Contrarian Agrarian is the CSA and Bismarck Farmers Market's primary vehicle for communicating with its members, and I agree to stay abreast of farm news by reading the newsletter every week. PLEASE PROVIDE YOUR EMAIL CONTACT.

2021 CSA Shares

You are supporting local agriculture and small local businesses by becoming a member of Bountiful Harvest CSA. A CSA membership provides "seed" money for our farmers to purchase seed and other supplies early in the season before income from farmers markets.

Your weekly share of seasonal vegetables begins in mid-July and continues through mid-October weather permitting.

Our produce and baked goods are picked, packed or baked as close to the day of pick-up as possible; not shipped or stored for a week or two before reaching your table. Now that's fresh.

2021 CSA Shares are $350, include 7-10 varieties for about 3-5 people. Each bag includes 7 to 10 varieties weekly. A share is enough for four to five people. Also included in the bag, an additional canned good alternating weeks with fresh-baked bread from German-Russian traditional recipes.

Our farmers are members of the Bismarck Farmers Market and have many other items for purchase at market. Reserve your share today by returning the contract with your check to the address provided.
